Dear Family & Friends,

You're invited to a House Concert!

I/We have a friend - his name is Larry Rossi. He is a singer, song "catcher" and lover of God, life and "gifts." As much as we all truly believe in the things he sings and talks about he seems to be a lot more comfortable singing and talking about those "things" than most.

"Throughout the course of his performance, Larry translates his personal experience and belief to construct a musical environment that is, at one and the same time, safe, reassuring, and fundamentally compelling. His lyrics are refreshingly free of judgment or accusation, and he never lectures. Instead, Larry speaks directly to the members of his audience as he conveys his own profound reliance on the spiritual bedrocks of family, friends, and values.

In a world that many perceive as increasingly unpredictable and insecure, Larry Rossi's message of love, faith, and conviction is sure to bring inspiration and comfort."

I/We are very pleased to have Larry over to my/our home on _____ at _____ P.M. and I am/we're hoping you are able to attend.

I/We know from my/our relationship with you that you like to share in inspirational experiences. You may also have some questions about your "gifts," what they are exactly, and how you may be able to use them to help others.

I/We can't and won't promise that Larry will have all the answers, but I/we can promise you an enjoyable evening of great music, stories, fellowship and a pretty thorough stimulation of your mind and heart.

There is a suggested donation of $10 per person to reserve your seat (though any amount higher or lower will be greatly appreciated). You can send this along to me/us if you are able to attend. Checks should be made out to LIFE Outreach International. All proceeds will go directly to www.lifetoday.org to benefit the hungry and thirsty of the world. Please visit the website for more information.

Larry will also have CD's available for purchase.

I/We truly hope you can attend! You can read more about Larry and hear some of his music at www.larryrossi.org

Please RSVP by _____

Sincerely,

P.S. If you are able to come please let me/us know if you would be able to bring a folding chair or two. Once I/we count up the guests, I/we will let you know if I/we need yours.
